

Dear Kallins, Little, AND Delgado Law Firm, I would like to thank you first for awarding me with a scholarship. I know you receive numerous qualified applicants and to be selected is an honor. Also, thank you for hosting such a wonderful dinner and ceremony.
I enjoyed getting the opportunity to meet you all and the other award recipients. Judge Adams' presentation was riveting, motivating, and offered me wise insights to life that I greatly appreciated. Each of you exemplifies generosity by giving back to the community and you have showed me that I can continue to serve even when I eventually have a full-time job.
Again, thank you and continue to do great things.

Sincerely,

Diana Nelson

Dear Mr. Delgado, J.D.:

How are you? I want to thank you and the law firm for the $3,000 Scholarship.

It will, without a doubt, help me with school books at the University of Florida next year. Despite all of the jokes, you are in good shape. Along with the money, I enjoyed the dinner at the IMG Country Club, formerly known as "El Conquistador", too. I would like to take up on the law firm's offer and attend lunch one day. Hopefully, next year I can be a speaker at the ceremony. Thank you.
